Operating Rhythm Calendar Template

For small technology teams designing their first set of recurring business reviews, with sample agendas for leadership, pipeline/revenue, product, and customer cadences.

> How to use this: Assign an owner and a day/time to each cadence below, adapt the sample agenda items to your business, and cross out any review your team isn't ready for yet.

Weekly: Pipeline & Revenue Review

Short and operational: what changed since last week.

Day/time this happens:

Who owns running it:

Who must attend:

- [ ] Review new pipeline added this week and its source.
- [ ] Review deals or signups that moved forward, stalled, or were lost.
- [ ] Flag current blockers that need a decision this week.
- [ ] Confirm what shipped or is shipping in the next 7 days that affects revenue.

Monthly: Product Review

A step back from day-to-day execution to check roadmap health.

Day/time this happens:

Who owns running it:

- [ ] Review roadmap progress against what was planned last month.
- [ ] Review recurring themes in feature requests or complaints.
- [ ] Decide what moves onto or off of next month's roadmap.

- [ ] Flag any product decision that needs leadership input at the quarterly review.

Monthly: Customer Health Review

Checking whether existing revenue is stable and identifying risk early.

- [ ] Review upcoming renewals and their likelihood of renewing.
- [ ] Review accounts showing usage decline or support friction.
- [ ] Review expansion opportunities among healthy accounts.
- [ ] Assign an owner and next action to every at-risk account.

Quarterly: Leadership Strategy Review

The only cadence where direction itself, not just execution, is up for reconsideration.

Date of this quarter's review:

Who must attend:

- [ ] Revisit whether the current GTM motion still fits deal size and buyer type.
- [ ] Review progress against the growth lever prioritised last quarter.
- [ ] Decide the single growth priority for the coming quarter.
- [ ] Review resourcing and hiring needs against current priorities.
- [ ] Confirm or adjust the weekly/monthly cadences below based on what's working.
